

Website Usage Policy Statement

It is the policy of Capel Manor College to require the ethical use of this website by all enrolled users as defined below. A user is considered as any enrolled member of this site. Legal action will be taken for any violations that are unethical and may constitute a criminal offense.

Privileges - The use of this site is a privilege and not a right. You will be assigned an account in the form of a username and a password. Access will only be assigned to those who have a verifiable relationship to the college & have accepted this usage policy. Accounts are valid for the duration of their enrolment in this site. Furthermore, for security reasons, all user actions are logged for future reference.

Acceptable Use - The goal of this site is to supply information media that promotes innovative and educational excellence. Therefore, your use of this site must be in support of education, research and communication in line with the mission statement of Capel Manor College.

Unacceptable Use - The College does not condone or permit inappropriate use of this site and has taken precautions to restrict access. However users are advised that the Internet contains material(s) over which Capel Manor College has no control and the College cannot completely guarantee that users will never uncover inappropriate material(s) found in other websites linking to or from this site.

If a user discovers inappropriate material(s), he/she must notify the Capella Administrator immediately.

Inappropriate material(s) is/ are defined as material(s) that is/are inconsistent with the Capel Manor College's Site Policies, or is/are illegal, defamatory, abusive, threatening, profane, obscene, racially or sexually offensive, or plagiarized.

Other unacceptable uses include, but are not limited to include:

- Acts of vandalism, including any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of other user(s), or to do damage to hardware or software.
- Use of someone else's password is prohibited.
- Each user is ultimately responsible for his or her own account.
- Use or publishing of impolite or inappropriate language.
- The revealing of someone else's password, phone number, address, or age will be considered as an invasion of privacy with appropriate consequences.
- Encouraging or helping others to violate any of the above rules.

This agreement is subject to change without prior notice.